UK release 05/10/17

Just 35 years after Blade Runner comes the acclaimed sequel! Visually stunning the film has been short listed for a clutch of awards and demands to be seen on the big screen. Based on Philip K Dick's characters this dystopian vision of the near future raises social, political, scientific and technological questions as well as offering dazzling and occasionally violent entertainment.

A Woman's Life (12)

Dir Stéphane Brizé
2017 Belgium/France
119 min
UK release 12/1/18

Guy de Maupassant's novel Une Vie is the source for this French adaptation filmed in Normandy. Despite the impact of the revolution, 19th Century France remained a grim social world for women - even those members of wealthy aristocratic families. Jeanne's life story is both personal and a critical view of the society she grew up in. A prize winner at the Venice Film Festival.

UK release 27/10/17

Based on a true story this star-studded film is a moving account of how Robin (Andrew Garfield) and Diana (Claire Foy) try to cope with his diagnosis of a terminal illness contracted when in Kenya in 1958 aged just 28. With Tom Hollander, Diana Rigg and Hugh Bonneville among the supporting cast and musical score by Nitin Sawhney this is cinematic story telling not to be missed

I Am Not A Witch (12)

Dir Rungano Nyoni
2017 UK/France/Germany
99 min
UK release 2/10/17

Written and directed by Rungano Nyoni this British-made independent film deserved more attention than it got when released last year. Set in Zambia a young girl - Shula - is accused of witchcraft. Mark Kermode - in an enthusiastic review - praised Nyoni's "bewilderingly strange yet terrifically sure-footed feature debut... (blending) cruel humour, pointed satire and empathetic anger."
